講義計画
The language program will normally be available for three weeks during August in            (i) Langara College (Vancouver, Canada)            (ii) The University of Gloucestershire (Cheltenham, England) The General English course is for three weeks with four hours of instruction in the mornings on weekdays. The majority of lessons are aimed to develop students' English speaking ability. There will also be lessons of grammar, listening, writing, role play etc. There should be chances of local visits and opportunities to visit more distant places at the weekends. The main purpose of each activity is for students to experience that country's culture directly in English.
